It is the duty of the Assured or his agent, in all cases, to take all such possible measures as may be reasonable for the purpose of averting or minimising a loss of or damage to the insured goods and to ensure that all rights against Carriers, Bailees or other third parties are properly preserved and exercised. In particular, the Assured or his agent is required: 1. To claim immediately on the Carriers, Port authorities or other Bailees for any missing package. 2. In no circumstances, except under written protest, to give clean receipts where the goods are in doubtful condition. 3. When delivery is made by container, to ensure that the container and its seal are examined immediately by their responsible official. If the container is delivered in damaged condition or with seals broke or missing or with seals other than states in the shipping documents to clause the delivery receipt accordingly and retain all defective or irregular seals for subsequent identification. 4. To apply immediately for survey by Carrier's or other Bailees' representatives if any loss or damage be apparent and claim on the Carrier or other Bailees for any actual loss or damage found at such survey. 5. To give notice in writing to the Carriers' or other Bailees' representatives within three days of delivery if the loss or damage was not apparent at the time of taking delivery. 6. In order to cover under this insurance, the claimant must have an insurable interest in the subject matter at the time of the loss and actually suffered such loss. Note: The Consignees or their agents are recommended to make themselves familiar with the Regulations of the Port Authorities at the port of discharge.
